

I Am "Yah"

I am creative and humorous
I wonder why the world is round
I hear the laughs of fairies
I see blooming blossoms
I want to be a super model
I am creative and humorous

I pretend to talk to someone
I feel the warmth and fuzziness of a puppy
I touch the cold green stem of a beautiful flower
I worry that I will lose my friends and family
I cry tears of ice
I am creative and humorous

I understand that the world can be cruel
I say that all people have kindness in their souls
I dream that one day there will be complete peace on earth
I try to make other people's lives better
I hope that my family is always happy
I am creative and humorous
