

Phrases to Activate Prior Knowledge

Always looking, listening	“Watch out, watch out!”
Somebody would get up and run	Nothing to be afraid of
The wind is blowing	Is it danger
Followed her to the edge of their territory	Always look and smell and listen for danger
Look around really quick	Jumps way up in the sky and “AHHHHH”
Eyes are really big	You hear a coyote?
But I am not going home	You be careful
Her heart’s just pounding	She crouches way down and gathers all her energy
Grabs on the rocks	Running, running, running, running
She comes into the crowd	I fell right through